French 13' Long Farm Trestle Console Table, circa 1900's

This extraordinary 13' long pine table is a special find; it is rare to find an original antique table this long.

The top has been worn and weathered through generations of use, seen in every scratch, gouge, stain, distress, crack and age related separation of the long four planks which all add to its authentic vintage appeal.

The base is a traditional trestle formation with a newer, professionally applied gray painted finish, lightly distressed to fit the age and character of this wonderful long table or console.

Restored, strong and stable this table is ready to be enjoyed. Please enlarge photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details.
