Rustic Peg Leg Console Table from Hungary, circa 1890

This 5' rustic plank top console table with splay peg legs originally served as a work table. Iron bolts along the edge add a slight industrial feel.

The thick top invites one to run fingers along it, while stains, cracks, nicks, and gouges all add character and intrigue to the table itself. The squared peg legs are a slightly splay out slightly beyond the table top.

Table top depth: 19.25"

Leg depth: 21"

Restored, this table is strong, stable and ready for use.

Any scratches, cracks, dings, or age related separation are reflective of age and do not detract from the appeal nor function of this console.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
