18th Century Chestnut Console Table with Three Large Carved Drawers

18th Century chestnut console table with three large carved drawers. The chestnut has developed a deep, rich patina through years of use. Each drawer is accented with floral carving, and additional carving continues along the legs and lower skirt. Restored strong, stable, and ready to use. The age and generations of use are seen most clearly in the top. Please note old cracks, stains, gouges, a square shaped old repair toward the right end, old repairs to cracks or separation in some of the drawers, and signs of dried old wormhole activity that is no longer active.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting all impact how item is viewed. Photos are part of item description, please ask questions or request additional photos of specific areas if needed.
