Pair, 19th Century Swedish Gustavian White Stools Tabourets

Pair of early 20th century Swedish taboret stools crafted in pine. Each stool features turned, tapered, fluted legs and carved detailing along the skirt with flowers, leaves, and vine elements, adding depth and visual interest.

The original painted finish has been largely scraped, leaving residual white paint with russet undertones while exposing the natural pine beneath.

The seats retain vintage muslin upholstery, worn, aged, and stained simply holding batting in place and secured with exposed small nail heads. The stool frames are restored, stable and ready for reupholstery at the discretion of the buyer.

All scratches, cracks, dings, and age-related separation are reflective of age and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this pair of Swedish stools.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting all impact how item is viewed.
