19th Century Kubbestol Log Chair from Norway

A kubbestol is a traditional Scandinavian chair made from a single log, and has become a collector's item for many individuals. Every knot, crack, and sign of wear adds to the intriguing appeal of this hand-hewn stool. Unique to this kubbestol is the original hand-painted finish of stylized faux wood, typical folk art style of the period.

Notice in photos the warm patina of both wood and painted details, worn deeper through generations of use as well as cracks throughout and distress (with minor loss) to the painted finish.

Seat height 17.5"

Restored, stable, and ready to use.

All scratches, cracks, dings, and age related separation are reflective of age and do not impact the function of this kubbestol. Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting all impact how item is viewed. Photos are part of item description, please ask questions or request additional photos of specific areas if needed.
