Early 20th Century Rustic Peg Leg Coffee Table

The appeal of this rustic coffee table comes from the thick wood of the top that originally served as a work table, all resting firmly on peg legs.

The slab of wood that serves as the top is impressive with the deep gouges, stains, scrapes and even cracks that all combine to build the depth of character. Notice the raw edge and hand-hewn peg legs that sit level. There is a slight bow to the top, but this does not impact the ability to place glassware and other items upon it.

This coffee table has been restored and waxed so it is strong, stable and ready to use and enjoy.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting all impact how item is viewed. Photos are part of item description, please ask questions or request additional photos of specific areas if needed.
