20th Century Vintage Brown Leather Chesterfield Sofa from England

The rich brown vintage leather captures your attention in this wonderful Chesterfield sofa standing just over 7' long.

It has the traditional tufted buttoned back, rolled arms and nail head accents that create the drama one expects from this style, along with 2 large seat cushions.

The leather shows age related wear including scuff marks, impressions/creases, stains, crackling/creases which are typical in vintage leather, while the wood feet with castors and frame show typical nicks and wear from use as well.

Seat Height: 20.5"

Sold in vintage used condition; solid and stable, sits comfortably. This Chesterfield sofa is ready to place and use.
