Pair, 19th Century Swedish Black Rococo Armchairs

Pair of 19th century Swedish armchairs crafted in pine. The chairs feature an old black painted finish, scraped down revealing the warm patina of natural wood. Curved rococo arms and backs give the pair a strong profile, while a turned stretcher base and cabriolet legs add classic Scandinavian character.

The pair has been restored and is strong, stable, and ready to use. Minor cracks, scratches, and age-related separation reflect generations of use and do not impact function. Seats are upholstered in a simple linen fabric, easy to replace upon discretion of the buyer.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting all impact how item is viewed. Photos are part of item description, please ask questions or request additional photos of specific areas if needed.
