19th Century Swedish White Painted Desk or Side Table

19th century Swedish desk or side table, crafted in pine. The table is raised on tapered legs topped by simple carved floral medallions, giving the piece a refined and classic Swedish look. One long central drawer is accented with horizontal carved fluted detail and opens using the key as a pull, as the old lock and key no longer function. The newer layered antique white painted finish is lightly distressed throughout, creating a softly rubbed look across the top and adding dimension and character.

Floor to skirt height is 23 3/4 inches, making it especially useful as a small desk or writing table as well as a side table. Restored, strong, stable, and ready to use. Nicks along the legs, minor cracks, and scratches are reflective of generations of use and do not impact function.
