19th Century Swedish White Gustavian Three Drawer Side Table or Desk

19th century Swedish Gustavian side table or desk, crafted in pine. The table features one large center drawer flanked by two smaller drawers, each fitted with a brass ring to use as a pull. Decorative turned and tapered legs are accented with simple fluted detail and topped by carved floral medallions, giving the piece a graceful and classic Swedish look. The table has been given a newer applied antique white painted finish, lightly distressed to reveal natural pine below and add warmth and character. Scratches, staining, minor cracks, and nicks are present throughout, particularly along the edges, all typical of an item of this age. Restored, strong, stable, and ready for use.

Floor to skirt height: 24.25"
