19th Century Swedish White Painted Pine Sideboard Buffet

19th century Swedish sideboard buffet, crafted in pine. The piece features a classic three drawer over three door configuration and has been given a newer professionally applied layered antique white painted finish with gray undertones. The painted surface is distressed throughout, revealing natural wood below and adding dimension and aged character. Traditional applied carved diamonds embellish all three drawers and paneled doors, while canted fluted sides topped by diamond motifs further accent the form. The sideboard is raised on tapered feet, giving it a graceful and grounded Swedish look. Restored strong, stable, and ready to use. Typical age related cracks, minor separation, nicks, and scratches are present and reflect generations of use without detracting from function or appeal.
