Pair of stools - plug in added

This romantic pair of Empire style white painted wooden Curule stools are from Sweden, mid-19th century. Noted style elements include out-scrolling spindle arms and decorative X-form base. It is the lovely gently distressed, soft white finish that captures the aged charm of this pair. The seat is de-constructed, allowing the buyer to upholstered in their own personal style. This pair is solid, stable and ready to be used and enjoyed. Any scratches, cracks, dings, or age related separation are commensurate with age and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this lovely pair. Seat Height 18" CORRECT
