White Painted Danish Oak Tall Secretary Dated 1805

Antique oak secretary with graceful carved and curved crown displaying monogram and date of 1805.

Newer, professionally applied layered antique white exterior with gray undertones and contrasting interior painted in blue (with light gray undertones) bring new life to this lovely "bureau" or secretary desk. Desktop rests on two extended arms (no lock). Opened reveals six drawers and central cubbie/cabinet with additional smaller six drawers.

Lower section has one narrow drawer over three larger drawers with brass pulls. There are 2 metal "pins" used to lock the narrow drawer. Other locks no longer function so upper doors do not stay locked and rest opened. keys included to use as decorative pulls only.

ADDITIONAL DIMENSIONS:

Open Depth: 37.25"

Floor to Desk Height: 30.75"

Restored, strong, stable and ready for use. All scratches, cracks, dings, and age related separation are commensurate with age and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this lovely secretary.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed. Photos are part of description, please ask for additional photos of specific areas of interest or concern.
