Pair of Mid-Century Spanish Brutalist Cognac Leather Arm Chairs

Pair of mid-century Spanish Brutalist club chairs, constructed with substantial dark oak frames and vintage cognac saddle leather. Contrasting stitching and oversized nail head trim emphasize the strong geometric construction and give the pair a handsome, rugged character.

The chairs sit particularly low, with a seat height of approximately 13 inches, creating a relaxed and grounded profile. Slight variation is visible between the leather tones, with one chair appearing somewhat darker than the other. The lighter seat may have received greater exposure to sunlight over the years.

The vintage leather shows staining, scuffs, scratches, and other signs of use consistent with age. Additional scuffs are visible along the oak frames, particularly around the feet. These signs of wear contribute to the aged character of the cognac leather and dark wood.

Solid, stable, and ready to use.
