Rustic Early 20th Century Coffee Table from Hungary

The appeal of this rustic coffee table comes from the thick wood of the top that originally served as a work table.
Note the gouges, nicks, old cracks and stains that all combine to build the vintage character of this coffee table. The squared splay legs are darker than the top, creating contrast.
This table has been restored so it is strong, stable and ready to use and enjoy. One end of the table has a worn depression, while the other end remains thicker. In photos, this appears as a bow or dip to the top (along with a nick or cut off section under left top section); these do not impact function and one can still place a glass upon the surface.
Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting all impact how item is viewed. Photos are part of item description, please ask questions or request additional photos of specific areas if needed.
