Antique Original Hand Painted Small Sideboard or Side Table from Sweden

Delightful in every way, this small sideboard still maintains its original soft blue painted finish with floral and fruit painted panels. A monogram is seen over the top of the cabinet door while right side has a single drawer and is painted with floral pattern seen on front. The left side was left plain pine, indicating that perhaps this originally was set against a wall or corner, so was not painted on that panel. The top is also natural pine, creating a warm contrast to the painted base. Note the wood pegs used instead of nails, old hinges and gently tapered legs. Generations of use are seen through the wear and distress; note several areas where the paint has been worn off to reveal the natural pine below, along with age-related scratches, dings, stains and wear. This charming sideboard has been restored and waxed so it is stable and ready to be used and enjoyed.
