Antique Black Painted Chest of Serpentine Drawers from Denmark

This antique baroque chest of drawers from Denmark features a serpentine front, brass hardware pulls and an exceptional (newer) matte black painted finish. The lightly scraped off black paint creates a warm contrast with the natural oak beneath and brings out the curved details and cabriole feet; it is trimmed with burnished gold and red undertones creating a dramatic effect. Note the upper drawer is slightly smaller than the lower 3. This dresser has been restored, case is sturdy and drawers are in working order. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close.
