Antique French Table with Scrolled Iron Base

This fascinating 6' table holds visual intrigue due to the carved wood and iron base. Notice the carved scalloped and curved details accented and supported by the wrought iron scroll work of the unique base. Please examine photos to understand the aged distress to the wood and finish. This table is strong/solid; any cracks, scratches or nicks are age related and do not impact the function of this table which may be used for dining, as a work desk or craft table.
