Antique Large Carved Bleached Oak Bookcase Display Cabinet from France

Impressive in every way, this heavily carved oak display cabinet makes a dramatic impression. The hunt cabinet motif includes birds, fish, oak leaves, grapes, nuts and more. The original lead glass arched cabinet doors are trimmed with red glass while the interior shelves are adjustable. It has a bleached oak finish, providing a fresh look for today's modern home. Condition: The cabinet is strong, stable and ready for use but not restored. A few minor cracks are visible in the glass but it is still in place. There is an age-related crack that runs along the interior cabinet base which does not impact function nor strength and typical wear related scratches, dings are also present. This striking cabinet may serve well as a bookcase as well.
