Antique Original Blue Painted Small Farmhouse Table With Drawer

The charm of this cottage style table is in the simple details and rich patina of the distressed hard wood top and painted base. On the base, the warm natural pine is exposed where the original blue (and even some underlying green) paint has been worn and distressed from years of use, highlighting the drawer and legs. The drawer in the apron offers deep storage and function to make this an ideal side or work table. The top was left natural pine, with every nick, crack, gouge and stain revealing generations of use adding to the authentic vintage feel of this farm table. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close. Restored, strong & stable, this side table has been waxed and is ready to use and enjoy. 22.25" floor to skirt.
