Antique Set of 4 Swedish Rococo Period Chairs With Vintage Leather Seats

Original Swedish rococo period chairs.

The graceful lines of the curved back with carved shell details are complimented by the legs and lower stretchers with trailing leaves along the legs. The stunning patina is seen in the traces of blue paint that accents the natural wood which was gently distressed over years of use. The original vintage leather seats have textured crackles and stains which create the aged patina and will likely benefit from a leather conditioner. This set of 4 chairs are in solid, stable and usable condition. Any scratches, distress, cracks are age related and do not detract from the function or appeal of these lovely chairs. Seat Height: 18".
