Antique Tall Pine Chest of Drawers Highboy from Sweden

Antique 19th century Swedish pine highboy chest of paneled drawers. Notice how the top drawer sits forward of the lower four and is accented by long side half columns. A key is included to use as a pull to open the drawers which work smoothly. The dresser is restored and pine has been given a wax finish, which accents the carved details and brings out the warmth of the wood. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close.
