Antique Original Painted Demi Lune Side Table from Sweden

This Swedish demi lune table has a "folk art" feel to it due to the original paint which decorates the curved edge of the top. Notice the traditional tapered legs, the aged patina of the painted finish and how wood pegs were used instead of nails. Today, this one can be used as a side table, console table, nightstand, or whatever purpose you decide. While there are old cracks visible in the top, this table has been restored and is solid and strong, ready to be used.
