Large Antique Oak Chest of Drawers With Blue Painted Finish, Sweden

This impressive large oak chest of drawers is quite dramatic thanks to the (newer) blue painted finish that has been distressed to fit the age of the chest accenting the Rococo curves and cabriolet feet. Please examine photos to appreciate the painted finish, perfectly distressed to reveal the natural oak below. Any cracks, wear, separation is commensurate with age; in particular age related separation of planks that compose the bottoms of the oak drawers. This chest has been restored; case is sturdy/strong, drawers function, etc.
