Antique Heavily Caved Hunt Cabinet from France

Dramatic carved oak hunt cabinet from France; carved images include but are not limited to stag, geese, fowl, wild boar, nuts, leaves, musical lyre and more. The cabinet is made in 2 sections, the upper cabinet resting upon the lower sideboard. Upper shelves are adjustable, lower single shelf is removable. Lower left door is held in place by small hook/latch. All carving is executed with exceptional detail and craftsmanship, please examine the photos to better understand the outstanding workmanship and hours that went into crafting this amazing cabinet. Signs of wear include scratches (especially on top of sideboard due to placement of heavy upper cabinet), minor age-related separation of wood, etc. This remarkable hand carved cabinet has been restored and is in strong/stable condition ready to be placed and enjoyed.
