Antique Brown Painted Lacquered Chinese Cabinet Sideboard With Paneled Doors

Visual intrigue abounds in this small yet dramatic dark brown painted Chinese cabinet with lacquer finish. It is the unique heavily paneled doors and upper drawers that one finds mesmerizing with the evocative rounded metal studs that create the trim. This sideboard is painted and lacquered with a traditional "floating top" which allowed for wood to adjust to humidity. Any scratches or knicks (especially around feet and bottom) are age-related and do not impact the beauty nor function of this striking sideboard. Restored, it is strong/stable and ready to be used and enjoyed. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close.
