Antique 5' Original Painted Bench with Storage

This 5' pine bench still retains much of the original aged paint from 1903, when it was crafted. What makes this a special find is the unique size as most benches of this style were much longer. The traditional folk art of the late 1800's into 1900's included floral motifs painted in panels, often using blue and red backgrounds such as this one. It has a low seat back, and a bench seat which lifts to reveal hidden storage below. The wear and fade of the paint reflects its 100 years of use, and adds to the country charm of the bench. The entire bench has been restored and waxed, so it is strong and ready for use. Seat height 19.5".
