Large Antique Pine Display Cabinet Bookcase Pharmacy Apothecary

This amazing pine bookcase first served in a retail store as a pharmacy apothecary in the late 1800's. Notice the labels for medications and ingredients that still remain on some of the many drawers. This large wall unit is built in 4 sections, making transportation and intallation an easier task. Any knicks, cracks and signs of wear are age related and add to the depth of character of this wonderful display cabinet. Please enlarge photos to appreciate the warmth and depth of the aged patina. It has been restored and waxed; it is strong, stable and ready to be placed and enjoyed.
