Vintage Sun Dial Armillary on Pedestal from Denmark

Antique garden ornament from Denmark, known as a Sun Clock or Armillary, with a cast metal figure holding spherical rings and mounted on a pedestal base (representing Atlas holding up the world). The metal of this sun clock has remnants of yellow and green paint and a verdigris patina with sign of rust. The pedestal has old nicks and marks reflecting years sitting outside exposed to the elements all adding to its authentic vintage. This item is solid/stable. Due to weight, it will ship via Freight shipper. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close.
