Late 19th Century Oak White Painted Cupboard Cabinet

This charming antique oak cupboard was given a (newer) white painted finish that has been slightly distressed to compliment the European country style of the display cabinet. The scalloped edging, bonnet /crown and hand-carved details adds a touch of grace. This cabinet is made in 2 pieces - the top can be separated from the base. Note the close up photos to appreciate the finish. This delightful cupboard/cabinet has been restored and waxed; it is in working condition and ready for use. Any nicks, scratches, signs of wear are age related and do not detract from the function nor beauty of this oak display cupboard.
