Antique Large Black Painted Oak Chest of 4 Drawers With Serpentine Front, Denmark

This antique rococo chest of drawers from Denmark features a serpentine front, brass hardware pulls and an exceptional (newer) matte black painted finish. The lightly scraped off/distressed black paint creates a warm contrast with the natural oak beneath and accentuates the curved details and carved cabriolet feet. This dresser has been restored, case is sturdy and drawers are in working order. Any cracks, dings, scratches etc are age related and do not impact the function nor beauty of this dresser. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close.
