Antique White Painted Oak Carved Secretary Bureau from France

This oak secretary reflects the grace and class of French styling in the early 1800's. The beautifully carving along the drawers adds a romantic touch, including baskets of flowers, swags/ribbon around laurel wreaths and more. The desk top opens on metal hinges to reveal four interior long narrow drawers and one central cubbie. It was later professionally painted with an exceptional white painted interior and exterior updating the look while adding to the classic French country styling. Restored, the drawers function and the secretary is ready to be used and enjoyed. Any old nicks, scratches, slight bow to interior/drawers are all commensurate with age and do not detract from the function of this secretary. Please enlarge photos to appreciate the incredible painted finish distressed perfectly to fit the age of this attractive secretary while accenting the delicate carving as well. Total depth 33" when opened
