Antique Long Walnut Refectory Library Dining Table Console, France circa 1860-80

The stunning walnut wood is the highlight of this long refectory or library table from France.

The balance of six turned legs and long stretcher make it easy to accommodate chairs for a dining table.

The top is comprised of 4 planks of oak, which has developed a deep patina over the past 100 years.

Restored, strong and stable. The scratches, cracks, nicks, and signs of wear reflect generations of use and add to the rich character of this lovely 8.5' long table. Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
