Antique Original Painted Swedish Armoire With Flowers Dated 1863

Lovely original hand-painted armoire from the Swedish countryside. The monogram and date of 1863 indicate this was likely a wedding present.

The delicate blue and pink flowers are surrounded by a traditional folk art background in a reddish brown tone. Interior later painted in taupe.

Left door is secured closed with interior latch, key and lock function for the right door.

Restored, strong and stable, this armoire is ready to be placed and enjoyed.

Any scratches, cracks, dings, or age related separation are reflective of age and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this lovely piece.
