Antique Original Orange and Blue Painted Mora Grandfather Clock, Sweden circa 1820-40

It is the warm patina found in the original painted finish of this stunning Swedish Mora grandfather clock that makes it a special find.

Note the soft salmon background highlighted with teal blue surrounding the old face and decorative applied carved trim. Original clock face and hands. Clockworks and weights included but do not function.

Pine wood longcase has been restored, is strong, stable and reflects nicks, scratches, signs of wear/distress from generations of use.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details.

At almost 8' tall, this statuesque mora grandfather clock will make a striking statement in any home.
