An incredible find, this impressive long narrow refectory table from France is painted light blue (with gray undertones) and accented with darker blue trim around edges and diamonds on two drawers. The lower shelf and turned legs add to the elongate look of this 13' table. Newer paint with slight distressing, no pulls on drawers. This library table is strong, stable and ready for use. It may also serve as a dramatic kitchen island or long console as well.

Any scratches, cracks, dings, distress to paint or age related separation are reflective of age and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this lovely table. Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
