Original Painted Pine Sideboard Cabinet, Sweden circa 1820-40

This cabinet is a charming representation of early 19th century Swedish craftsmanship, from both the cabinet maker and the painter that created it. The aged patina of the painted finish draws one to it. The single panel door is painted with a traditional floral motif against a soft teal blue background. A traditional faux wood brown painted finish is seen throughout. Note the original lock still functions with key which is included.

While you can frequently still find antique original painted trunks, it is difficult to find a sideboard with exceptional original folk art paint with perfect aged patina such as this one.

Restored, strong and stable this buffet is ready for use.

All scratches, cracks, dings, and age related separation (see sides, back, front corners, etc.) are reflective of age and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this special sideboard.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
