Large French Bleached Oak Bookcase Display Cabinet, circa 1940

This impressive oak bookcase has four upper glass paneled cabinet doors and four panel cabinet doors below.

The oak has been bleached creating a fresh, lighter finish for today's modern home.

This large display cabinet is made in two sections, upper and lower, allowing for easier shipping and installation. Both together are approximately 8' tall and 7' wide.

Restored, this large wall unit is strong and stable. Locks do not function in upper cabinet; keys are used only as pulls while the lower locks still function. Four keys included.

All signs of wear such as cracks, scratches, nicks, shifts to shelving are commensurate with age and do not impact the function of this stunning bookcase.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
