Pair of Blue Painted Chest of Three Drawers With Griffins, Sweden circa 1840-60

A pair of elegant Gustavian pine chests of three drawers painted in soft blue and contrasting black top with pair of griffins highlighting the upper drawer.

Canted fluted side posts with upper carved lion head medallion, dentil molding, raised on four tapered fluted feet.

Each of the functioning drawers have 2 brass pulls and decorative key hole cover (no keys included).

The newer, professionally applied and layered light blue painted finish is perfectly distressed to fit the age and grace of this stunning pair of Gustavian chests which will serve well as matching nightstands. Please enlarge photos to appreciate the layered finish. Note also the contrasting black top. Restored and ready for use, drawers function.

All nicks, scratches, cracks, distress etc. is reflective of age and use and does not detract from the function nor elegant appeal of this striking pair of chests that may also serve as nightstands.

Please refer to professional photos to clearly understand finish, colors, details, condition, etc. Individual monitors/screens and professional lighting will impact how items are viewed.
