Large French Bleached Oak Sideboard Buffet, circa 1800's

It is the lovely carved details and heavily paneled doors that draws one to this French oak sideboard while the bleached finish gives it a fresh and welcoming look for today's modern home and shows off the wonderful grain.

The attractive scalloped carved skirt and feet finish the romantic look of this oak buffet standing just under 7' long.

See photos to understand interior configuration of the three functioning drawers.

All signs of cracks or wear are commensurate with age, please enlarge photos for understanding. This includes cracks/aged separation in panels and top. Stains visible along top, old metal supports added to back. Slight warpage to top.

This sideboard is restored, solid/stable and ready for use. Doors have aged and do not fit tightly so there are metal clip closures on left/right doors instead of pull. Center door is held in place with interior lock which slides upward. Note, there are no pulls nor keys for doors.

All scratches, cracks, dings, stains and age related separation are reflective of age and do not detract from the function of this French oak sideboard buffet.
